

Bequest Information

Bequests are a meaningful and lasting way to enable WPF to provide family planning for those in need. By nominating WPF as a beneficiary in your will, you will be growing the capacity of WPF to continue this important family planning work well into the future and towards a sustainable global population. Your gift will be entrusted to the WPF Trust Fund for this purpose.

After providing for your family and friends, your gift will work for you in accordance with your wishes. Your gift can take the form of:

- The residue of your estate
- A percentage of your estate
- A specific amount of money
- A life insurance or superannuation policy or other financial assets
- Assets such as equities, property, works of art, jewellery etc.

All information and enquiries we receive are treated confidentially. If you have decided to leave or are considering leaving a gift, we would like to suggest you talk to us. Any statement of your intentions is not in any way legally binding.

In preparing your will, we advise you to take legal advice. If you are a solicitor and have a client who would like to leave a bequest to Women's Plans Foundation, please pass on our sincere appreciation.
